Masterclass Series: Drawing, the Essential Art

AGRA is pleased to present two master artists in charcoal and pen & wash who will provide two days of inspiration for those artists who wish to see a different medium in use, improve their drawing skills and strengthen their knowledge in charcoal and pen & wash.

Demonstration Day Saturday 2nd May 2009, 10am – 4pm
 Camberwell RSL Hall, 403 Camberwell Road, Camberwell.

10am -12.30pm CHARCOAL demonstration by Robert Knight AGRA
 Robert is a very successful artist and is a regular exhibitor at AGRA's Annual Drawing Exhibition with his skillfully rendered and powerful charcoal drawings. It is a rare pleasure to view him demonstrating his talents in this medium.

1.30pm – 4pm PEN & WASH demonstration by Maxine Wade
 Maxine is a highly respected watercolour and drawing tutor who is in demand for her dynamic teaching skills, helpful hints and ability to effectively communicate her artistic knowledge gained over 20 years of teaching.

Cost: $40 AGRA members / $45 non-members
 Cost includes morning & afternoon tea; BYO lunch

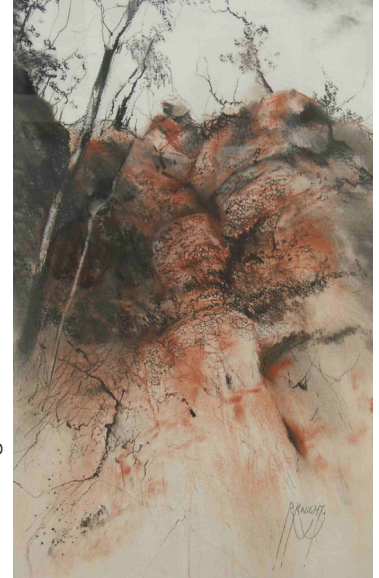

Masterclasses Sunday 3rd May 2009, 9.30am – 4pm

Participants have the opportunity to hone their charcoal or pen and wash skills under the expert tutelage of Robert or Maxine. Only 10 students in each class ensures individual attention for attendees.
